

Adverbs of Emphasis:

Worksheet 2

Instructions: Rewrite the sentence using the adverb of emphasis in parentheses ().

1. The homework was difficult today. (very)

2. I am hungry right now. (a little)

3. She runs fast in every race. (too)

4. The movie we saw last night was good. (extremely)

5. He is finished with the project. (almost)

6. The bag is heavy because it's full. (so)

7. I am sure I left my keys here. (quite)

8. That is a strange-looking bug. (rather)

9. We are lost in this big city. (completely)

10. I am feeling tired after that long walk. (somewhat)

11. He was wrong about the answer. (totally)

12. She is a smart student who always studies. (really)

Adverbs of Emphasis:

Answer Key

1. The homework was very difficult today.
2. I am a little hungry right now.
3. She runs too fast in every race.
4. The movie we saw last night was extremely good.
5. He is almost finished with the project.
6. The bag is so heavy because it's full.
7. I am quite sure I left my keys here.
8. That is a rather strange-looking bug.
9. We are completely lost in this big city.
10. I am feeling somewhat tired after that long walk.
11. He was totally wrong about the answer.
12. She is a really smart student who always studies.